

RG Jester™ Clear Polyester

BEHIND THE DESIGN:

Because different is our middle name. Simple, boring, plain, blend in with the crowd, where's the fun in that? Dare to be different. Dare to make a statement!

Lets be real here, nobody strikes every single time, spares are inevitable. So why not make a statement while you clear the deck.

So whether you drill it to keep the colors separated or drill it to create a strobe effect, just know this clear polyester ball will stay on the path you roll it.
